WIDE AWAKES, ATTEND!!!

SHE IS
WANT OF BUSINESS
Requires the presence of every Wide Awake at half past seven o'clock.

For present notice do not come in any other way, or you will be considered traitors.

Georgia, Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 8.

WHAT SMALL WERDO!

The Presidential election is ended.

The victory is ours; has been duly celebrated, and the excitement of the election is over. (The Wide Awakes will be wide awake no longer, but) with the majority of the inhabitants of this, no especially speaking, Magnolia City, will fold their arms and close their eyes in that slumber which becomes epidemic here with the advent of frost and snows. In short, Newport is just on the point of relapsing into its wonted dullness on the cessation of the annual summer excursion.

What shall be done, and what shall we do, to promote a healthy action in the body corporate of this community?

Our people languish for the lack of excitement—something to vary the tedious monotony of their existence. The "railroad," though yet in a progressive state, is not sufficiently advanced to present a fruitful topic for conversation and discussion. It is yet too early for those gentlemen who are anxious to serve their country, in executive stations to become targets for vicious tongues to shoot at, and the threatened stampede of the South is not of sufficient consequence and magnitude to occupy the minds of sensible men.

Every winter we have had concerts, with the same singers, and the same tunes and pieces, with the same audiences as listeners. This sort of amusement has sort o' played out. Shall we have something new, and what shall it be? Our Fall River neighbors are always giving us a course of lectures by men of mind, musecle, &c., as Hon Charles Sumner, Dr

Winship, &c. Is there not stamina sufficient in Newport to engage in this sort of intellectual feasting? or do we lack the dimes and dollars? Almost every other place of any pretensions to respectability has its lyceum, where young men may make themselves proficient in debate, and others may listen.

Shall we have something of this sort?

In short, what shall we have, what shall we do? Or shall we organize ourselves into an association of have-notings and do-nothings, with back shops for our lyceum rooms?

ALL RIGHT.—Mr. C. Allen has returned to the city and to the United States Hotel, where he has made matters right with

Mr. Copeland, and moreover explains in a satisfactory manner the circumstances of his sudden disappearance.

South Carolina and the Administration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Letters continue to be received from respectable sources at the South by the administration, asserting that South Carolina will positively secede from the Union. As yet there has been no formal consideration of the subject by the Cabinet, and therefore no course of action in view of such a contingency has yet been adopted. Notwithstanding the reserve of the Cabinet office, it is known that on the distinctive legal question of secession they do not agree. This difference has revised the rumor that Secretaries Cobb and Thompson are on the eve of resigning, but the rumor is without foundation.

No troops have been recently sent to Southern military posts, nor is such a movement contemplated.

Edmund Russel made a secession speech here last night, and was rapturously received.

Efforts were made yesterday in the Legislature to wait for the co-operation of other Southern States, but they failed.

A State Convention is to be called and secession will probably be decided on the 4th of December, and the convention will meet on the 17th. Miss Boyce, Bonham and Keitt urge the calling of a convention and immediate action.

The Blame of Lincoln's Election—Death of a Secession Journal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Richmond

Whig of to-day contains an article laying the blame of Lincoln's election to the course of the Administration at the time of the Charleston Convention, if not previous in Douglass' nomination.

The Petersburg Journal, a secession paper, expired to-day.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR OF GEORGIA.

No Secession, No War on the North.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL RECOMMEN-DATIONS.

MILLIDGEVILLE, GA., Nov. 8.—Governor Brown has sent a special message to the Legislature. In it he expresses the opinion that our new state will be represented in the Southern Confederation, and does not recommend the appointment of delegates to the Southern Convention.

He also says that the Constitutional rights of the people of Georgia have been violated by several slaveholding States, to the extent of putting the majority of civilized nations in a position necessary for the protection and mutual protection of their rights.

It refers to the origin of the Government and portends a return to the original and unfriendly acts. It is pointedly severe on Massachusetts laws, and says if the laws of Massachusetts cause the plunders of Georgia citizens, that State must be compelled to compensate them, and advise reprisals.

He says he is in favor of just aggression and unconstitutional legislation with just retaliation. He recommends the enactment of laws authorizing the seizure of any amount of the money or property of any citizen of such offending or faithless State, as will indemnify losses. He recommends such legislation as will drive the manufactured articles of offending States from Georgia. He says Georgia has the right as soon as Northern goods are brought to tax them as she deems proper.

He advises the passage of a law taxing goods and merchandise 20 per cent. after the 1st of January, if manufactured in or brought from Massachusetts, Vermont, Michigan, Maine, Rhode Island, New York, Wisconsin, or unfriendly States, the tax to be remitted when the unfriendly legislation is repealed.

Should such legislation prove ineffectual, the recommendation is to prohibit the manufacture of all articles of the civil code protecting the lives, liberties and property of the citizens of the State where such unfriendly laws exist.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The members of the Broken Bowditch received dispatches yesterday from prominent parties in South Carolina and other Southern States, giving assurance that there will be no secession at present, and hereafter. Giles Lincoln commutes some overt act of injustice.

SOUTH CAROLINA AND THE SECESSION QUESTION.—The South Carolina Legislature is in session, awaiting the news of Lincoln's election as the signal for seceding from the Union. Will she secede? Perhaps she may. But what then? We dare say that the administration of Mr. Buchanan will not interfere with her, and, as his best policy is to let her try the experiment.

She is a sovereign State, and, if she does like the rest of the Union, how can we deny her the sovereignty of the Union? She is in full right to withdraw.

The message is very long, and concludes thus: "For the purpose of putting the South in a condition of war, to be prepared to be increased by an emergency, which must be sooner or later, he recommends that a million of dollars be appropriated as the military fund for the ensuing year, and that prompt provision be made for raising such portion of the money as may not be in the treasury as fast as the public expenditures require." Millions for defense and not one cent for tribute, should be the future motto of the Southern States. To every demand for further concession or compromise of our rights, we should reply that the argument is exhausted at "we now stand on our arms."

Mr. Lincoln's Projects.—A correspondent at Springfield, Ill., has the following of the prowess of the President elect!

"Legends of his prowess, in the days when he adorned the pursuit of flatboat navigation, are yet current among his early companions. Probably, to his physical courage and daring he was indebted for his accession to leadership during the early Indian troubles upon the frontier. His capacity as a leader was often tried, during those short campaigns in the wilderness, and was never found wanting. If he carries to the executive chair the pluck and daring which enabled him to hold his own against the rampant flatboaters, with whom, from time to time, even the most peaceful of the craft would now and then come into hostile collision, it is taken that the adroit finesse and executive decision which enabled him to evade an ambush of Indians in the Black Hawk war, and to beat the dusky warriors at their own system of fighting, whenever they revealed themselves, he will make just such a President as the present crisis demands."

Mr. Lincoln on Election Night.—A correspondent at Springfield has the following:

"At half-past seven o'clock Mr. Lincoln walked in with a party from the room of the Secretary of State to hear the news. He was received with the enthusiasm which his appearance always excites, and was im-stantly led to the platform and seated in the Speaker's chair, where he remained for an hour, listening to a few impromptu speeches, but making none himself. When a dispatch from one of the counties considered doubtful was received, he rose and read the news of a Republican victory, adding, 'We expected it would be so, and it is as it is, pretty generally these times.' Soon after, he excused himself and retired, finally appointing a chairman before leaving to fulfil his duties."

Failure of the Signs.—A gentleman who had carefully trained up his servant in the way he should go, so that when his wife was present he might not depart from it, sent him with a box ticket for the theatre to the house of a young lady.

The servant returned when the gentleman and his wife were at dinner. He had, of course, been told, in giving answers to certain kinds of messages, to substitute the masculine for the feminine pronoun in speaking of the lady.

"Did you see him?" said the gentleman, giving him the cue.

"Yes, sir," replied the servant. "He said he'd go with a great deal of pleasure; and that he'd wait for you, sir."

"What was he doing?" asked the wife, carelessly.

"He was putting on his coat," was the reply.

It is said that there was "fat in the fire" immediately.

Another Office to be Vacated.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—McIntosh, the Federal Judge in Florida, announces that he will not hold office under Lincoln.

Mass Meeting of the Citizens of Savannah.

The meeting was adjourned.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 8.—A mass meeting was held last night to consider the action of John W. Brown, the elector of the State, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That the election of Lincoln and Hamlin ought not and will not be submitted to the Southern Confederation, and does not recommend the appointment of delegates to the Southern Convention.

Resolved. That the Constitutional rights of the people of Georgia have been violated by several slaveholding States, to the extent of putting the majority of civilized nations in a position necessary for the protection and mutual protection of their rights.

Resolved. That we recommend the Legislature to take into immediate consideration the passage of such laws as will alleviate any embarrassment of the commercial interests of the State consequent upon the present political emergency.

Resolved. That we suggest to the Legislature to take steps to organize and arm the military forces of the State.

The colonial flag of Georgia was raised in the afternoon on the Greene monument, in the presence of an immense multitude. Mayor Jones, Capt. Barton and Colonel Jackson addressed immense crowds in the evening.

Orations to the Resigned Federal Officers.—The President will resist nullification and secession.

Charleston, Nov. 8.—A large body of citizens called on the resigned federal officers last night, and cheered them loudly. These officials returned thanks.

A dispatch in the Courier from Washington says that the President will resist nullification, but not secession.

JOHNS & CROSLEY'S IMPROVED GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT

ROOFING.

Is the cheapest and most popular roofing in use. It is fire and water proof. It can be applied to new and old roofs of ALL KINDS and to old shingle roofs without removing the shingles.

THE COST IS ONLY ABOUT ONE-THIRD

THAT OF TIN, AND IS TWICE AS

DURABLE.

Gutta Percha Cement for preserving and repairing Tin and Metal Roofs of every description.

From its great elasticity, is not injured by the contraction and expansion of metals and will not crack in cold nor run in warm weather. These materials have been thoroughly tested in New York and all parts of the Southern and Western States, and we can give abundant proof of all we claim in their favor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become debilitated, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrid curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and healthy invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigoriting Spirit.
